

WEBSTER FIVE CENTS SAVINGS BANK NAMES TWO NEW DIRECTORS/TRUSTEES OF THE BANK

WEBSTER, MA – July 14, 2010 –Webster Five Cents Savings Bank has announced that at its Annual Meeting held May 19, 2010, Robert E. McKenna and Eric A. Rosen were elected by vote as new Trustees/Directors of the bank.

McKenna and Rosen will represent Webster Five as Trustees/Directors of WebFive MHC; WebFive Financial Services, Inc.; and Webster Five Cents Savings Bank.

Robert E. McKenna was elected as a Corporator of the Bank in May 2007. He is Senior Vice President, Treasurer, and Chief Accounting Officer at Commerce Insurance Company, a MAPFRE Company. McKenna graduated from the University of Massachusetts and went on to earn an MBA from Nichols College. He resides in Northboro, MA.

Eric A. Rosen was elected as a Corporator of the Bank in May 1998. He is Vice President of Logistics and Treasurer at Quabaug Corporation. Rosen graduated from Nichols College and earned an MBA from Anna Maria College. He resides in Woodstock, CT.

As Webster Five embarks on its 142nd year, these two accomplished gentlemen will support the bank as it continues to represent the diverse interests of the communities it serves.

“We could not be more pleased with the appointment of these two individuals as Trustees/Directors of Webster Five,” stated Richard T. Leahy, President and Chief Executive Officer, Webster Five Cents Savings Bank. “As individuals, they are each highly respected for their professional accomplishments as well as for their contributions to our local communities.”

For more information, contact Webster Five Cents Savings Bank, Marketing Department