WORCESTER, MA – A ribbon-cutting ceremony was held to mark the opening of Webster Five’s new Chandler Street, Worcester branch office on Monday, January 9, 2012.

The ceremony kicked off grand-opening events that will be held during a weeklong celebration beginning January 23rd, featuring entertainment, refreshments and drawings for great prizes, open to all who visit the Chandler Street branch that week.

The new 3,000-square-foot office is a relocation of the bank’s Park Avenue branch and is one of three Webster Five branches in Worcester that provide convenient banking across the city. The new, larger building features a modern design, additional parking, two drive-up teller stations, a walk-up ATM and a drive-up ATM to make customers’ banking experiences easy and enjoyable. In addition, because the property was a brownfield redevelopment project, it supports local revitalization efforts.

“The unique design elements and the added conveniences will help create a welcoming, friendly atmosphere for our customers. We’re excited to provide our customers with a more comfortable, convenient place to learn about Webster Five’s comprehensive line of financial products and services,” says Richard T. Leahy, President and CEO of Webster Five.
